

CALIFORNIA SECURITY CASE LAW LIBRARY

Where to Find Legal Help in Sacramento and California

Updated 2026-08-04 · 7 min read · Cluster: counsel ·
summitsecuritysacramento.com/case-law/legal-help-directory-sacramento-california

This page is a courtesy list of publicly available legal-aid organizations, State Bar referral services, court self-help centers, and government agency hotlines in Sacramento and California; it is not a referral, endorsement, or attorney recommendation.

About this directory

This is a curated, courtesy list of publicly available resources compiled for research and education purposes only.

Summit Force Security Group does not endorse, recommend, or receive any benefit from any organization listed here, and inclusion is not a referral of any kind.

Contact information and services change over time, so confirm current details directly with each organization before relying on them.

Resource categories

Resource type	Example	What it generally offers
Legal aid organization	Legal Aid societies via lawhelpca.org	Free or low-cost help for qualifying individuals
State Bar referral service	State Bar of California	Referral to a licensed attorney in relevant practice areas
Court self-help center	Sacramento County Superior Court	Guidance on court forms and procedures without legal advice
State agency hotline	CRD, DIR, BSIS	Complaint intake and general process information

Sacramento-area starting points

- Sacramento County Superior Court Self-Help Center for general court procedure questions
- Legal Aid organizations searchable through LawHelpCA for income-qualifying individuals
- State Bar of California Lawyer Referral Service for finding a licensed attorney

- California Civil Rights Department and Labor Commissioner regional offices for employment complaints

Not legal advice, not a referral

This directory is provided by Summit Force Security Group for research and education purposes only, as a courtesy list of publicly available resources. It is not a referral, endorsement, or recommendation of any attorney or organization.

Summit Force Security Group is not a law firm and does not provide legal advice or legal representation. For advice about your specific situation, consult a licensed California attorney or the relevant government agency directly.

Quick answers

Is this directory a recommendation of any attorney?

No, this is a courtesy list of publicly available resources and is not a referral or endorsement of any specific attorney or organization.

Does Summit Force Security Group offer legal advice?

No, Summit Force Security Group is not a law firm and does not provide legal advice or representation of any kind.

How do I know if I qualify for free legal aid?

Eligibility varies by organization and is typically based on income; check directly with each legal aid provider through LawHelpCA.

What does the State Bar referral service do?

It connects individuals with licensed California attorneys in relevant practice areas for a consultation, often for a modest fee.

Primary sources — read the official text

Find legal help	LawHelpCA	https://www.lawhelpca.org/
Lawyer Referral Service	State Bar of California	https://www.calbar.ca.gov/Public/Need-Legal-Help
Civil Rights Department contact	California Civil Rights Department	https://civildrights.ca.gov/contact-center/
Labor Commissioner's Office locations	California Department of Industrial Relations	https://www.dir.ca.gov/dlse/DistrictOffices.htm
BSIS contact information	Bureau of Security and Investigative Services	https://www.bsis.ca.gov/about_us/contact.shtml

Research and education only. Summit Force Security Group is a licensed private patrol operator (PPO #122730), not a law firm. Nothing in this digest is legal advice, no attorney-client relationship is created, and nothing here implies endorsement or approval by BSIS, the Department of Consumer Affairs, the Labor Commissioner, the Civil Rights Department, the State of California, OSHA, FEMA, or any court or agency. Statutes and case law change — verify the current text with the primary sources above and consult a licensed California attorney about your situation.

Need coverage instead of research? Summit Force Security Group · 1-800-823-5337 · Summitforces@gmail.com · summitsecuritysacramento.com